Hit HGTV Show Hidden Potential to Feature Wayne Dalton Garage Doors
California builder and designer Jasmine Roth adds serious curb appeal to builder-basic homes

June 10, 2019 - HGTV's breakout hit show Hidden Potential will include four homes adorned with a variety of Wayne Dalton doors, a leading manufacturer of residential and commercial door solutions on its second season. Hidden Potential follows California builder and designer Jasmine Roth as she transforms builder-basic houses into custom dream homes by giving them features that stand out from the crowd.

"Through Hidden Potential, viewers have the opportunity to see how a new garage door can completely transform the exterior of a home. Plus, garage door replacements can help increase the overall value of one's home at the time of resale," said Wayne Dalton Senior Brand Manager Sarah Schram. "We love working with building and design experts like Jasmine who help clients see the beauty of well-planned curb appeal."

Wayne Dalton independent dealer All County Doors, who have been in business operating throughout Southern California since 1991, installed each of the doors.

Hidden Potential can be seen on HGTV, as well as streamed on YouTube, iTunes, Amazon Video, VUDU and Google Play.
